OUR DEPARTED ONES

---

They finished their task, and joined the enumerable caravan which moves to that mysterious realm where each shall take his chamber in the silent halls of Death.

Sustained and soothed they approached their grave like one who wraps the drapery of their couch about them and lies down to pleasant dreams.

We have examined them as per Book of Discipline and find them with a fair knowledge, but not sufficient requirements for advancement. We, therefore, recommend that Brothers A. H. Oates, F. H. Conner, A. J. Beard, J. H. Knowles and Richard Hooks remain in their class and Brothers J. W. Lewis and W. E. Spells be ordained and passed to the Third Year Class. We also recommend that Brother G. #### ON MEMOIRS

Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 26, 1938.

To the bishop and members of the S. Fla. Annual Conference assembled:

We, your committee, beg to report that since our last session the Grim Reaper has entered our ranks, asking no quarters, nor giving no quarters, but added a drop of gall to our cup of pleasure.

When he plucked from the bench of bishops Rt. Rev. W. H. Heard, one of the ripest churchmen in our Methodism, also from the trenches we mourn the passing of Rev. W. H. Maddox and Rev. J. S. Small.

We, therefore, recommend that Dr. S. A. Harris speak of Bishop Heard; Rev. Paul Lee, speak of Rev. Maddox; Rev. H. W. Fayson, speak of Rev. Small.

With sympathy we bow.

Your committee,

Rev. J. C. COWAN

Rev. J. R. THOMPSON

Rev. J. R. RICHARDSON

Rev. WM. H. WOODS, Chairman.

THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY

To the presiding bishop, ministers, and delegates of the Annual Conference:

It is a privilege beyond adequate expression to be selected to deliver to you this concise treatise on the state and country. It is my ardent desire that it will prove to be informational as well as interesting.

Throughout the ages, one of the primary things that has stimulated man toward a greater civilization was his aggressiveness. This aggressiveness has manifested itself in religion, political upheaval, and general vicissitudes of fortune that has changed man into the creature he is.

To live, man must be active. Whether this activity is progressive or regressive, matters little where the sustaining of life is concerned. However, progressiveness has brought man into the realization that a forward step means a greater likelihood, that his work will be perpetuated.

Since our Annual Conference last convened, our country has passed through some of the most intricate crisis that she has ever known. Not since the germ of Nationalism was planted in the minds of the people and our government was established, has the very foundation of our governmental machinery been shaken as it is. Likewise, the Negro has not been such a figure of prominence and importance since Reconstruction. It gives me great pleasure, and my heart bursts with pride to say to you that this time it is not sympathy, but the inevitable realization of his proficiency, religiously, politically, socially and economically.

It is not necessary that I go back seventy-five years to relate a panorama of our achievements, but up to the present time and since our last Annual Conference, the number of homes owned by Negroes have increased from a little over twelve thousand to seven hundred and thirty-eight thousand. A people representing only one-third of the population of this country, and our business enterprises and other institutions represents approximately three billion dollars. Out of eight hundred thousand persons entering colleges in September last, one-fourth of that number were Negroes; and even a larger percentage of the total graduates were of our people. This means that not only have we begun a forward stride but the impetus has increased. There is no doubt that the general realization of our worth in the perpetuation of this democracy is universal.

It is our good fortune as American citizens to be in a country whose desire for peace is beyond the avricious desire for possession of those things which belong to others. We have diplomatically sterred clear of the many situations which would have meant war under slightest provocation at other times. Our recent treaties with South America, have established friendship and a bulwark of safety for the American, which does not anticipate war but fosters peace and comradeship.

Our national budget, far from being balanced, is far in excess, where stability is concerned, to any country in the world. Not only does our country to the present day possess and control one-fourth of the world's wealth, but recent statistics show our level of living conditions is much higher than any other country in the world. This, despite the fact that our president says that one-fifth of our population lives in conditions far below the American level. If this is true with us, what then must be conditions of our foreign neighbors?

A definite measure to make this country free of the most insidious type of lawlessness was perpetrated in our last congress session. The matter of lynching is one of grave concern to every American citizen, whether he thinks pro or con. It appears to me that it is a child born of America which was meant to be aborted. Yet it has been nurtured by some of the people who are responsible for its illegitimate birth in this country, until now it raises its head to accept a mate for perpetuation of its ignoble acts. It is deplorable that some who have been given the responsibilities to look out for the general welfare of the people, as prescribed in our Constitution, have worked no end to furnish this mate. There are two factors destined to handicap the continuity of this lawlessness politically. The strength of the Negroes' voting power on the one hand, and the outstretched hands of Communism on the other. The Negro does not want Communism, but his cries have reached a crescendo for life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness; and if the Communist offers these things, it shall follow as a natural sequence of events that he will accept it.

The present governmental administration has made a forward step to the social and economic security for the masses. Especially for those whose incomes can assure them of security only during their working years. Negroes in every state where social security is accepted are carrying on the work of the program. The youth program of America is headed entirely by Negro officials. These facts indicate that our merit has elevated us to the sphere of usefulness in every endeavor.

The population of our country has increased with its wealth. Especially is this true where we are concerned. There is a total of more than eleven million Negroes in the United States and among these we have one hundred thirty-two Phi Beta Kappas; one hundred fifty-five Doctors of Philosophy. These figures mean that one-tenth of the school attending population of our country has achieved distinction in highest literary honors and more than these have achieved renown in various other fields. Ninety per cent of the total Negro population is literate and has helped to create the eight hundred colleges and secondary schools for posterity.

We are not approaching Utopia, but the general trend is toward equality for all. Ideal situations must exist in the hearts and minds of the people. Medical statistics show that two minds in every ten could not harbor such a state of idealism. Three-fourths of the cases in hospitals in our country today are mental cases; which means that the erratic pace of living is affecting in no little way, our minds as well as bodies.

Let us not be discouraged or too much satisfied by any of these facts. Internal upheaval as well as outside forces may, and can offset the whole machinery of a peaceful program. Lawlessness and sacrilegious actions on the part of the masses may at any time abort a program whose tendency is toward universal brotherhood. Despite these possible inconveniences and the many deplorable irregularities we have now, the state of the country is better now than it has ever been by eighty per cent.

We, as ministers and the laity as a whole would do well to accept and embrace the faith in God as the poet who wrote:

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise,
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

I know not where His islands lift
There fronded palms in air,
I only know I can not drift
Beyond His love and care.

O brothers, if faith like this is vain
If hopes like these betray,
Pray for me that my feet may gain
The sure and safer way.

And thou, O Lord by whom are seen
Thy creatures as they be,
Forgive me if too close I lean
My human heart on Thee.

Your committee,

Rev. E. L. PINKNEY
Rev. L. D. KENNEDY
Rev. C. E. GOODWIN.

ON PUBLICATION

Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 26, 1938.

To the bishop and members of the S. Fla. Conference assembled:

We, your committee on Publication, beg to render our report. The task assigned us at this time is one of great importance to all concerned, especially our group.

The publication department of our church is a beacon light to its followers. Reading makes a ready man, by this department, many have been informed and inspired through our literature. We have the honor of having the first Negro paper published in America, namely, The Christian Recorder. We, therefore, recommend that all loyal members of this conference, subscribe to one of our weekly journals and also provide themselves with Disciplines and A. M. E. Hymnals.

TEMPERANCE

Daytona Beach, Fla., February 24, 1938.

To our bishop and conference:

We, your committee on Temperance, offer the following as our report:

To be intemperate in any activity is a detriment to our physical and spiritual welfare.

We can over-eat, over-dress, over-drink, over-talk and so on—all to an extent that in the end we have made our physical man a diseased and distressed being. To be moderate in all things, is to take a step toward wisdom. Let us follow the foot-prints of the great man of Galilee, who went about doing good, and who admonished us to teach mankind to observe all things.

Your committee,

Rev. A. J. BROWN

Rev. A. L. O'NEAL

Rev. J. D. DUKES.

ENDORSEMENT

Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 26, 1938.

To the bishop and members of the S. Fla. Conference assembled:

Whereas, Rev. W. P. Mitchell, pastor of Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, Jacksonville, Fla., has been endorsed by his Conference for the Chief Secretary of the next General Conference. Knowing his ability as we do,

Be it resolved, that the South Florida Annual Conference go on record as endorsing his candidacy.

Respectfully,

Rev. N. B. BOYD.

ON RESOLUTIONS

South Fla. Conference, Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church,
Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 26, 1938.

Bishop and Brethren:

Once again as we approach the close of another conference session, the second under the administration of Bishop R. A. Grant. It is eminently befitting that we pause long enough to give thoughtful attention the significance of these days, and to evaluate the meaning and worth of the personalities and factors which have been chiefly responsible for all that is maturing and that has come into full fruition.

As a usual acquaintance with the situation before us and the circumstances which environ us, requires that we give just consideration to Bishop Grant, who in a very unique way is the administrative and spiritual center in the remarkable work the A. M. E. Church is doing in Florida.

We are confronted with a marvelous program of expansion and improvement in well nigh every phase of the life of the Church. Because what is being done for education and the financial and material rehabilitation at Edward Waters College, is so outstanding and challenging, we are apt to lose sight of the not less remarkable spiritual transformation that has been wrought during these two years.

Not only do we behold a revival of confidence in the program of the Church with particular regard for Edward Waters college, but we are being possessed of a renewed and deepened consecration to all the vital things for which African Methodism historically stands. We have not only been brought to a new day, but we have been seized upon by a new spirit which befits us to measure up to the demands of this day.

Now, therefore, since Bishop Grant has contributed so vitally in bringing about this new spirit and this new day.

Be it resolved, that we do here and now reaffirm our high regard for his radiant character and intriguing personality, his brilliant and successful leadership.

Be it further resolved, that we pledge to him our loyal support of his great program, and our purpose to see it through to a happy consummation with especial regard to Edward Waters College, we scan his zeal and enter heartily upon the drive for fifty thousand dollars to clear the institution of financial encumbrances.

Respectfully submitted,

The committee on resolutions,

Dr. S. H. SAVAGE, chairman.

The 10th Annual Session of the Conference Branch W. H. and F.
Missionary Society of the South Florida Annual Conference,

Thursday, February 24, 1938

Morning Session

The Conference Branch was called to order on the above date promptly at 10 a. m. by Mesdames L. M. Jones, C. H. Boger and Fannie Graham leading the devotions. The president, Mrs. M. R. Adair, was then presented and announced, an old-time hand-shaking and one hour song and praise service was next in order. After a very fine spiritual feast this part closed by singing, "He'll Understand And Say Well Done", led by the president. The meeting was then opened for business. Registration by districts, the attendance banner was awarded to the Daytona Beach district. The committees were appointed. Visitors were introduced as follows: Mrs. M. E. Grant, state supervisor; Mrs. Jennie L. Brooks, state president emeritus; Mrs. Ruth Logan, state superintendent, Young People's Department; Mrs. J. B. Epperson, state secretary; Mrs. G. P. Mitchell, president, conference branch, East Fla. conference, and Mrs. Blanch Barkley, formerly of our conference, but now of Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mrs. Rowena Banks and Miss Grace Brewer of Daytona Beach.

Afternoon Session

The afternoon session was opened by Mrs. Mamie McGill and others. The lesson was taken from the Pathfinder—The companionship of God. Many beautiful thoughts were brought out by the different speakers. Mrs. E. F. Smith then took charge of the program, the conference president delivered her address, which was full of information and thought. The mission study course was conducted by Mrs. M. E. Grant, much interest was manifested by all present. The funds were reported by districts, and the committees reported. Missionary benediction.

Friday Morning Session

Friday morning session was opened and presided over by Mrs. Elizabeth Russell. Hymn stories by Mesdames M. F. Pinkney, A. B. Jones and Susie B. Mayes, will live long in the minds of those who heard them. Mrs. M. P. Chappelle then gave us the origin of spirituals, which was a masterpiece, and the spirit ran high as she told of the trials that urged the writing of different spirituals. The afternoon session was the finishing up of the business of the senior department. Missionary benediction.

Saturday Morning Session

Saturday was Youth Day, the meeting was conducted by Mrs. Allie Z. Clemons, conference superintendent, Young Peoples' Department, and Mrs. Ruth Logan was present to help with this department, the entire day was given to story-telling and Bible drills and special Missionary Drill, which was very interestingly dramatized by Mrs. Florence L. Dyett of Bethune-Cockman college. The state president, Mrs. A. E. Heath, having arrived, brought greetings from the board meeting in Montgomery, Ala. The election of delegates was next in order, for State and Quadrennial conventions. The Saturday evening oratorical contest was declared the best yet in its class. The music was furnished by the Bethune-Cookman "A Capella Choir" and Campbell Street High School Choral Club. Miss Cleona Baily of the Miami District, won first prize in the contest. The report of the W. H. and F. Mission Funds was read at the close of the Saturday morning session of the Annual Conference and sixty (60) mission preachers were given missionary money immediately.
